OUTSIDE

This genuinely unique home boasts a most enviable plot. Standing relatively central to the village yet enjoying the peace and space of a rural property, The plot must be seen to be fully appreciated.

Being predominantly laid to lawn boasting mature well clipped hedging to boundaries helping to create a good standard of privacy whilst retaining a natural backdrop. To one corner stands A barn style timber garden shed (3.65m x 2.98m) with double outward opening doors and window to side elevation. To one side are a number of log stores discreetly situated for the wood burning stove in the Sitting Room.

To the rear of the property the owners have created a private entertaining area which includes a spacious raised decked area currently being used to house a spacious outdoor seating area and five person hot tub (not included in sale). A further paved patio seating stands just off the decking creating a further private seating area.

The decking and gravelled driveway both allow access to the modern garage. Having been built and designed by the current owners to give real flexibility to its future purpose by being built to house build regulations in the agents opinion this could be an ideal annexe or the possibility of having a first floor office (subject to all necessary planning and building revaluations).
